

Good times

Log photos by KATHY HARRISON

LOOKIN' GOOD: The Mardi Gras parade through HarborWalk Village Saturday brought out festive costumes. The most common assembly was made up of gobs of beads and eye catching Tie-dye. For story and more photos, B1.
At top, crowd interaction during the parade was constant. Goodies were handed out, tossed out and literally taken off the floats as they passed.