

The DESTIN
Log

November 15-21, 2008

TV listings inside

TIME OUT

Blues, Brews & BBQ,
2-6 p.m. tomorrow,
HarborWalk Village

See Page T7

Brews, Blues and BBQ

Local restaurants will be firing up the grills for a good time and a good cause on Nov. 16 at HarborWalk Village, located at the foot of the Destin Bridge. The Florida Restaurant and Lodging Association's Northwest

Florida chapter will host a craft-beer tasting and creative BBQ competition. Fresh local fare will come from the Gulf Coast's hottest restaurants; Commanders Palace, Seagar's, Mitchell's

Fish Market, Great Southern Restaurant Group, Water

Grill, and Bluz, are a sampling of participating restaurants. From traditional to creative, the competition will be hot. All proceeds benefit FRLA Educational Foundation, supporting the next generation of hospitality professionals.

Foundation, supporting the next generation of hospitality professionals.

The Brews

Breweries from around the country will tap their craft beers and offer stouts, ales, lagers, wheat beers, pale ales and porters for brew fans to taste. Brew choices range from sweet and spicy to bold chocolate and blueberry. Fest attendees will have the opportunity to enjoy over 25 varieties of craft beers and vote on the people's choice.

choice.

choice.

The Blues

Live music from hot local favorite and recording artist The Donny Sundal Trio will entertain guests on the center stage with his signature barefoot, high energy blues, jazz and soul riffs. Sundal is an accomplished musician, having recorded with many top names in the music industry, and produced a considerable amount of music events. Sundal has created a loyal following with his diverse talents and breadth of musically ability. Entertainment starts at 2 p.m.

at 2 p.m.

at 2 p.m.

The BBQ

Each brew will be served alongside the scrumptious outdoor feast of twelve of the top gulf coast restaurants. BBQ with rosemary biscuits, savory ribs and Thai bbq with a sweet chile glaze are just a sampling of the tasty entries. These savory and creative BBQ offerings will be perfectly paired with the seasonal refreshments provided by Budweiser, GoldringGulf and Coastal Wine and Spirits.

The fun spirited competition will surely heat up as the chefs compete for Best Traditional BBQ, Most Creative to Best

Booth display.

Booth display.

Booth display.

Tickets are $20 for a BBQ tasting armband and 12 beer tasting tickets. Additional tasting tickets are available for 2 for $5. Parking is Free.

